

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 16th, 2007

NETWORK receives International Recognition at League's Innovations in New Orleans.

Hamilton ON, Canada March 16^h, 2007, Network ISG, a creative marketing and technology company received international recognition at the prestigious League's Innovations Conference in New Orleans, Louisiana for the launch of a new educational web portal.

The mySPOKES™.ca web portal developed by Network ISG for the Avon Maitland District School Board, Fanshawe College and The Centre for Employment and Learning in Huron Perth, bridges the employer and student world. This new website and portal contains proprietary software developed by Network to enable course searches that match employer criteria.

"Through the use of well planned, intuitive and engaging strategy, mySPOKES™.ca provides the Huron | Perth Counties with a leading edge gateway to tremendous information, resources and support never available at a local level before." noted Gerry Visca, Chief Creative Officer with Network ISG.

Network was selected among a dozen firms, based on their experience and understanding of the target group and technical application. "Network's overall experience in the market place provided us with a level of comfort that they know how to develop and market our product...a true one stop shop for us." noted Denis Gravelle from Fanshawe College's Continuing Education Program.
